About this course

This program provides the skills and knowledge for an individual to commence work in the retail and Hospitality industry.

This course is nationally accredited within the Australian Qualifications Framework and outlined within the Tourism, Travel and Hospitality Training Package (SIT). Further details on this Training Package are available from the Australian Government's training information website:

http://training.gov.au/TrainingComponentFiles/SIT/SIT20416_R1.pdf

This program runs over a six week period. Students are to attend the course one full day per week on Mondays.

Program content

This program consists of two units of competency from the Tourism, Travel and Hospitality Training Package.

SITXFSA001	Use hygienic practices for food safety
SITHFAB005	Prepare and serve espresso coffee

 SITHFAB005 Prepare and serve espresso coffee, cannot be done until the pre-requisite - SITXFSA001 Use hygienic practices for food safety has been completed.

Study and career pathways

On completion of this program, students may continue their studies with the Certificate I in Retail Services or the Certificate I in Hospitality.

This qualification provides a pathway to work in a variety of industry sectors and business contexts. Individuals with this qualification are able to perform roles such as frontline team members.

Assessment

Assessments are completed both during classroom sessions and after the work placement component. Assessments vary with each unit of competency and include role play, observation, questions and answers, customer feedback and case studies. These assessments will also be used to determine work readiness and the ability to follow workplace instructions and procedures.

Advantages

- Nationally recognised qualification
- Earn credits towards NTCET
- Develop work skills
- Build confidence and communication skills
- Exposure to potential employers

Dress Requirements

Students are required to dress ready for work for all classes. The dress requirements are:

- Neat, tidy attire in line with business requirements
- Tailored black trousers or a black business skirt
- School polo shirt

How will you learn?

Training and assessment takes place at Sanderson Middle School. Students will need to supply the following for all classes:

- Pen/pencil for taking notes and completing learner guides
- Notebook/jotter

Previous studies and skills recognition

Taminmin College recognises qualifications and statements of attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTO). If you have completed training with another RTO, please talk to your trainer about receiving credit or recognition of prior learning for this course. Credit transfers will be automatic where previous studies have been completed at Taminmin College and the units of competency apply to this qualification.

Support services

Students with special needs, including students with a disability, need to be supported appropriately. Reasonable adjustments will be made to accommodate their special needs. Support for students requiring language, literacy and numeracy skills will be provided by dedicated school staff such as Special Education Support Assistant.

Student rights and responsibilities

Students have the right to learn and be treated with respect and dignity. Equally they have a responsibility to demonstrate respect for themselves, others and the training environment.

Student responsibilities include:

- Commit to and complete the VET program
- Comply with rules and expectations as detailed in the VET Student Information Handbook
- Comply with structured work placement requirements
- Comply with workplace health and safety (WHS) requirements
- Attend VET classes on time, dressed appropriately and ready to learn

Eligibility/entry requirements

To gain entry into this qualification, students must be enrolled at Sanderson Middle School in year 9. There are no other requirements or previous experience required.

Exit Points

Students may withdraw from this qualification at any time by completing a Withdrawal form and receive a Statement of Attainment for any units of competency successfully completed.

Taminmin College will provide training and assessment in accordance with the requirements of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 and ensure that the learner will have the opportunity to complete the qualification offered once a completed enrolment form is processed.
